General Orders
No. 10.

1. The following proclamation of the President is published herewith for the information and guidance of all concerned:

“(CALL INTO FEDERAL SERVICE AND DRAFT OF THE NATIONAL GUARD)

By the President of the United States of America

A PROCLAMATION

Whereas, the United States of America and the Imperial German Government are now at war, and having in view the consequent danger of aggression by a foreign enemy upon the territory of the United States and the necessity for proper protection against possible interference with the execution of the laws of the Union by agents of the enemy, I, WOODROW WILSON, President of the United States, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and the Laws of the United States, and through the Governors of the respective states, call into the service of the United States as of and from the dates hereinafter respectively indicated all members of the National Guard, and all enlisted members of the National Guard Reserve of the following states, who are not now in the service of the United States, except members of staff corps and departments not included in the personnel of tactical organizations, and except such officers of the National Guard as have been or may be specially notified by my authority that they will not be affected by this call, to-wit:

On July 15, 1917, New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, West Virginia, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, North Dakota, South Dakota and Nebraska.

On July 25, 1917, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Illinois, Montana, Wyoming, Idaho, Washington and Oregon.

The members of the National Guard of the various states affected by this call will be concentrated at such places as may be designated by the War Department.

2. And under the authority conferred upon me by clause second of section one, of the Act of Congress “To authorize the President to increase temporarily the military establishment of the United States,” approved May 18, 1917, I do hereby draft into the military service of the United States, as of, and from the fifth day of August, 1917, all members of the National Guard, and all enlisted members of the National Guard Reserve of the following states except members of staff corps and departments not included in the personnel of tactical organizations, and except such other officers of the National Guard as have been or may be specially notified by my authority that they will not be drafted, to-wit:

New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, West Virginia, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Illinois, Montana, Wyoming, Idaho, Washington, Oregon, Indiana, Kentucky, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Texas, Missouri, Kansas, Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, Utah and California.

3. All persons hereby drafted shall on and from the fifth day of August, 1917, stand discharged from the militia, and, under the terms of section two of the Act of May 18, 1917, be subject to the laws and regulations governing the Regular Army, except as to promotions so far as such laws and regulations are applicable to persons whose permanent retention in the military service on the active or retired list is not contemplated by law.

4. The members of each company, battalion, regiment, brigade, division or other organizations of the National Guard, hereby drafted into military service of the United States, shall be embodied in organizations corresponding to those of the Regular Army. The officers not above the rank of colonel of said organizations of the National Guard who are drafted, and whose officers are provided for in like organizations of the Regular Army, are hereby appointed officers in the Army of the United States, in the arm, staff corps or departments, and in such grades in which they now hold commissions as officers in the National Guard, such appointments to be effective, subject to acceptance, on and from the fifth day of August, 1917, and each of them subject to such acceptance, is hereby assigned as of the said date to the organization in the Army of the United States composed of those who were members of the organization of the National Guard in which at the time of draft he held a commission. The non-commissioned officers of the organizations of the National Guard, the members of which are hereby drafted, are hereby appointed non-commissioned officers in their present grade in the organizations of the Army composed of said members and shall in each case have the same relative rank as heretofore and all other enlisted men are hereby confirmed in the Army of the United States in the grades and ratings held by them in the National Guard in all cases where such grades and ratings correspond to grades and ratings provided for in like organizations in the Regular Army, all such appointments of non-commissioned officers and confirmations of other enlisted men in their grades to be without prejudice to the authority of subordinate commanders in respect of promotions, reductions, and changes in enlisted personnel.

5. Each organization of the military force hereby created will, until further orders, bear the same name and designation as the former organization of the National Guard of whose members it is composed.

6. All necessary orders for combining the organizations created by embodying therein members of the National Guard and National Guard Reserve hereby drafted into the military service of the United States into complete tactical units will be issued by the War Department.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I HAVE HEREUNTO SET MY HAND AND CAUSED THE SEAL OF THE UNITED STATES TO BE AFFIXED.

DONE AT THE CITY OF WASHINGTON THIS THIRD DAY OF JULY IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD, ONE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED AND SEVENTEEN, AND OF THE INDEPENDENCE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA THE ONE HUNDRED AND FORTY-FIRST.

By the President,

WOODROW WILSON,

Signature.

ROBERT LANSING,
Secretary of State.”

7. The following telegram relative to above proclamation is hereby quoted for the information and guidance of all persons connected with the Minnesota National Guard:

“Washington, D. C., July 14, 1917.

Adjutant General, Minnesota,
St. Paul, Minn.

President's proclamation dated July 3d, calling into Federal service on July 15th, all National Guard your state not now in Federal service, except Staff Corps and Departments, has been published. Personnel Staff Corps and Departments will be added to call as needed. Previous instructions pertaining to mobilization will govern.

MANN,
Chief, Militia Bureau."

8. Pursuant with above proclamation and quoted telegram, the following organizations of the Minnesota National Guard are hereby called into Federal service and will be assembled at their respective headquarters and armories on Sunday, July 15, 1917:

Headquarters First Brigade,
Second Infantry,
Third Infantry,
Field Hospital, Company No. 1, and
Ambulance Company No. 1.

St. Paul, Minn., July 24, 1917. }

General Orders
No. 11.

1. A state of war now exists between the United States of America and a foreign country; three regiments of Infantry and one of Field Artillery, the regular authorized strength of the National Guard of said state, as now constituted, have been called into the Federal service, and will soon be drafted into that service, thus leaving the state of Minnesota without a National Guard. It is therefore ordered that a new Regiment of Infantry, to be known as the Fourth Regiment, Minnesota Infantry, National Guard, be organized at once.

2. Two companies of said regiment to be assigned to Minneapolis, one to St. Paul, two to St. Louis county, Minnesota, and the remaining companies of said regiment will be assigned later. Applications should be sent to the Adjutant General's Office.

By command of

J. A. A. BURNQUIST,
Governor and Commander-in-Chief.
